

JANUARY-FEBRUARY 2015

VERANDA

HOMES with HEART

THE LITTLE DETAILS THAT MATTER MOST

GEORGIAN REVIVAL

A HISTORIC VIRGINIA HOUSE GETS A SENSITIVE, SUPREME ELEGANT RENOVATION FOR A THOROUGHLY MODERN FAMILY.

INTERIOR DESIGN BY SUZANNE KASLER | ARCHITECTURE BY MADISON SPENCER
LANDSCAPE DESIGN BY RIELEY & ASSOCIATES | PHOTOGRAPHY BY BJÖRN WALLANDER
PRODUCED BY ROBERT RUFINO | WRITTEN BY KATHLEEN HACKETT

The Palladian arch on the terrace makes a graphic statement against crisp white walls and furnishings. Sofas and tables, McKinnon and Harris. OPPOSITE: Stools in a Fortuny print, Suzanne Kasler for Hickory Chair; sofa in a Nancy Corzine fabric, Edward Ferrell + Lewis Mittman; canopy with curtains in Fortuny and Coraggio fabrics, Tara Shaw; sconces, Vaughan Designs; round table, Bunny Williams Home; rug, Stark. For more details, see Sourcebook.

